USD PROF'S WORK SCHEDULED FOR PERFORMANCE AT UCSD

SAN DIEGO, Calif.--Two performances of Denver Sasser's award winning play, "Just Like the Girl that Married Dear Old Dad," will be given by Na Copla Bana Productions at the University of California at San Diego.

The performances will be Friday and Saturday, July 30 and 31, as part of UCSD's Summer Series of Arts and Lectures. The play is the second by Sasser to be performed at UCSD. "The Invited" will be performed on July 16 and 17. Sasser is an assistant professor of English at the University of San Diego at Alcala Park and a resident of Poway.

"Dear Old Dad" won an award of merit in the Samuel French Annual Collegiate Playwriting Contest. It is a satire on homosexuality, yet done with compassion, Sasser stated. The story concerns the struggle for partners between three men and a girl.

Members of the cast are Daniel Davis of La Mesa, as Richard; Kirk McClure of Vista, as Alex; and Sasser as Scotty. Judy is played by Angel Zadarnowski.

Davis is a student and actor at Grossmont College, and he has appeared at the Old Globe.

McClure is a June graduate of Palomar College. While at Palomar he was an actor, two-year letterman as football fullback, a member of the "Bridal Belles," and dancer in the Spring Dance Concert. McClure was also president of the student body.
